

Resolutely ♩=56-72

High on the Mountain Top

1. High on the moun - tain top A 2. For God re - mem - bers top still His
 3. His house shall there be reared, His 4. For there we shall be taught the ban - ner is un - furl'd. Ye pro - mise mad of old That glo - ry that to dis play, And law will go forth, With na - tions, now look up; It he - on Zi - on's hill Truth's peo - ple shall be heard In truth and wis - dom fraught, to waves to all the world. In stan - dard would un - fold! Her dis - tant lands to the say: We'll gov - ern all the earth. For

High on the Mountain Top

des - er - et's sweet, light - should - there at now go up and ev - ver there His peace - ful land, On tract - the the gaze of serve ways we'll Lord, O ways we'll tread, And Zi - ion's mount be all the his world in bey save our selves and save our selves with hold - it stand!

lat - ter days.
learn his word.
all our dead.

Words: Joel H. Jophnson, 1802-1882
Music: Ebenezer Beesley, 1840-1906 Arr 1990 IRI